SGA to Consider Tournament Rule Changes

May Limit Entry To Golfers With Low Handicaps

Directors Will Set Tourney Dates Thursday

By GERRY ASHE

Two major changes in the conduct of the annual District amateur championship will be considered at the annual meeting of the Syracuse Golf Association, directors Thursday night at the Bellevue Country Club.

Curtis Pitkin, hard-working president of the SGA, will submit a suggestion that entrance in the classic be limited to members of association clubs only. Current rules state that entries may be made by any golfers in the county or resident members of SGA who are amateurs.

The president's plan would have been, if it had been adopted, since the membership of the association has been expanded to include virtually every club in the district.

The second major change to be suggested will be to limit entrance to golfers with certain handicaps, possibly 10 or better, rather than accept entries from all shotmakers regardless of ability.

This move is taken to cut down the size of field for the qualifying round. The entry has been growing more cumbersome each summer and the inclusion of additional clubs from outside of Onondaga County is seen as creating additional problems on qualifying days.

Tecumseh, Oswego, Westvale, Towne Hill and McConnellsville are members whose players were eligible last season while Battle Island, Camillus and North Syracuse will be represented for the first time.

Another major item on the agenda Thursday will be allocation of sites and dates for the major tournaments. Chief headaches will be assignment of sites for the district amateur—with the following 18 hole courses eligible: Green Lakes, Bellevue, Nottingham Knolls, Lafayette, Onondaga, Westvale, Tecumseh, Turnberry, Lakeshore, Battle Island and Skaneateles.

President Pitkin will ask the directors to consider another proposal, one that is part of the policy at the Rochester and other districts. This would be to make it possible for members of a club hosting an association tournament to play at other member courses.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The University of Florida has added Ed Kensler, former Maryland lineman and North Carolina coach, to its football staff.

In The SPORTSMAN'S CORNER

By Bud Hunter

ONEIDA LAKE COOLS OFF in the winter but the various discussions about its use continue to simmer. One of the latest to hear the boiling point is the proposal by the Oneida Lake Association to remove rough fish from the lake.

The current Bulletin from the association restates the argument that a body of water is capable of producing a fixed maximum poundage of fish annually and that when inferior species overwhelm the others it is the game fish that suffer.

In part it reads:

"Potentially Oneida Lake is capable of yielding vast quantities of fish. Actually a large portion of the production is in farm species that are not beneficiated and as a result are taking food and space for the best interest of the sportsmen and these species should be removed."

The association has proposed to the Conservation Department that the state should undertake a large-scale netting program of such species as carp, silver bass, etc. As yet neither an acceptance or an alternate plan has been received.

DUCK HUNTING HOURS, from sunrise until sunset for the next several days are as follows:

The duck season concludes on Dec. 21. The goose season continues through Jan. 10.

spotting things for the Bears. The Bears won the first match this season 27-21 on the strength of a 2-point second quarter safety.

Little but local prestige rides on the other NFL games, but there will be a few for a couple of individual marks in the Cleveland-Los Angeles game. Cleveland's Jim Brown, already has put together the greatest rush season any rusher has ever had, 1,758 yards. He'll be after the 32 necessary to make it an even mile. Washington's Bobby Mitchell is after the pass receiving lead. He has 63, just one back of St. Louis' Bobby Joe Conrad.

The AFL Western Division lead rides on the outcome of the two Sunday games. Oakland leaped into serious contention with its 41-27 win over Houston. Should the Raiders (8-3) reclaim the lead, they'll be in a tie for a couple of spots by beating Denver at the Chargers. Should Houston defeat the tough Houston Oilers, who are still very much in the running in the East.

The Central New York Ski Council has expanded its plans for a race clinic Dec. 21-22 at Greek Peak.

The original plans called for a race clinic for boys and girls under 13. The clinic will now include juniors (14-17 inclusive).

Registration will be held on Saturday, Dec. 21 from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m. Instruction in waxing equipment, timing techniques and actual sessions on the course will take place from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Instructor for the clinic will be Gordon Richardson, ski school director at Greek Peak. Inquiries and applications should be made to R. Kingman Sheldon, Cazenovia. Call him at OL 5-5365. Application blanks are available at the ski shops throughout Central New York and area clubs.
